New Oktoberfest in Michigan City

(September 19, 2006—Michigan City, IN) Authentic German food, a beer garden with wine and schnapps, German music, rides for children, and live German entertainment will highlight the new Oktoberfest to be held Saturday and Sunday, September 30 and October 1, at the Senior Center in Michigan City's Washington Park.

This new festival is to raise funds for the acclaimed Washington Park Festival of Holiday Lights that was recently named one of the top 100 events in North America by the American Bus Association.

Oktoberfest will be staged in a large tent on the Senior Center grounds, near the shores of beautiful Lake Michigan, from 12pm to 10pm (or later) both days. In case of inclement weather, activities will be moved inside. If you haven't yet seen the view from the Senior Center, this is the time to visit!

Admission is $5 in advance or $6 at the gate. Advanced tickets are available at the Michigan City Parks and Recreation Department office in Washington Park, the Senior Center, and Moser's Michigan Street Café in New Carlisle.

Moser's Michigan Street Café, an authentic German restaurant, will provide food and beer imported from Germany. And, of course, there will be German chocolate cake.

For tickets or more information, call the Michigan City Parks and Recreation office at 219-873-1506, or Moser's Michigan Street Café at 574-654-8466.
